THIRD OKTOBERFEST
SLATED THURSDAY

MISSOULA--

The third annual Oktoberfest is next week.

The Missoula Chamber of Commerce and the University of Montana are sponsoring for the third consecutive year the Oktoberfest for Missoula businessmen and invited members of the UM faculty and administrative staff.

Featuring dinner and refreshments done on a Bavarian theme, the festival will be held at the Missoula Snow Bowl between 5 and 10:30 p.m. Thursday, Oct. 10. About 200-300 people are expected to join in the festivities.

UM President Robert T. Pantzer, who was the burgomaster or honorary chief for the function last year, said of last year's Oktoberfest, "The success of the Oktoberfest resulted from the participation of people from the University and Missoula business and professional men."

Round trip bus transportation will be available with the buses loading behind Main Hall on the University campus and at the Chamber office, 207 E. Main St., at 4:30 and 5:30 Thursday afternoon.

Due to facility limitations, no University faculty or staff spouses will be able to attend the event.

Weather permitting, free chair lift rides will be featured on the ski slopes of Snow Bowl.

Businessmen may make reservations by calling the CC office, and University persons may confirm their invitations by calling Tom Collins, UM director of Public Services.

Reservation deadline is Monday, Oct. 7.
